

My message to young people would be to find your passion in life to make a difference in the world.

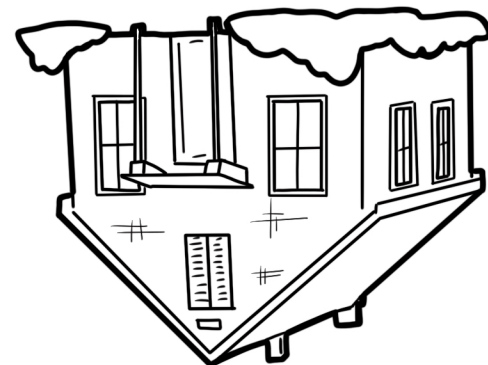

I tended soldiers' wounds, delivered medical supplies, and even worked on the front lines assisting surgeons.

Cut here

During the American Civil War, I worked as a nurse.

I was an educator for 12 years. In 1852, I helped open the first "free school" in New Jersey.

For animations and lessons, visit us at:

WonderGroveLearn.net

Clara Barton American Hero

My name is Clara Barton, and I founded the American branch of the Red Cross.

I was born in North Oxford, Massachusetts. I always had an interest in taking care of people from a young age.

