Related Vocabulary Words:

- hands, feet, space, poked, pinched, kicked

Materials Needed:

- Large copy of fluency for “Keep Your Hands to Yourself” (This could also be hand-written on a whiteboard or typed on a projector), copies of the fluency passage for each student

Activity:

1. After watching the video and completing the extension activities, gather the students so they can see the fluency passage for the day.
2. Ask your students to find the first word of the passage. Have them follow along and point to each word as you read.
3. Read the passage out loud, pausing at the last word of every sentence so that all of the students can finish the sentence together.
4. Have your students read together. Call one student up to point to the words while the rest of the class reads together (chorally) at your lead.
5. Point to words in random order. Have your students read these words together.
6. Post the fluency passage in the classroom. Have your students read it throughout the day.

Fluency Passage:

It is important to keep your hands and feet to yourself.

I like to have my own space.

I do not like being poked or pinched.

Other people do not like being poked or pinched, either.

When I sit at my desk, I don't like being kicked.

Other people do not like being kicked, either.

Sometimes I don't even want others to hug me.

Sometimes my friends don't want to be hugged either.

It is important to keep your hands and feet to yourself.

I will keep my hands and feet to myself, too.
